

BANDE DE BOUCANS

Le pari d'Enzo

by Anaïs Sautier, illustrated by Caroline Hüe

Can you live in Belsunce, Marseilles, and avoid the stadium? Can you love soccer but hate soccer players, their dumb as doorknob IQs, and their insults? That was Enzo until the day his buddies made him the goalie. And what a goalie he was!

13,5 × 21 cm, 208 pages

novembre
2024

LE CHÂTEAU DES ÉTOILES

(Volumes 1 et 2)

by Alex Alice

1869 and the conquest of space begins. Mad King Ludwig II of Bavaria finances the work of audacious explorers and joins them on their spacecraft to travel to the dark side of the moon. First, though, he must avoid the traps laid by Chancellor Bismarck's spies...

21,7 × 29 cm, 136 pages

december 2024

LE RETOUR DES WILLOUGHBY

by Lois Lowry Translated by Francis Kerline

Global warming: the Willoughby couple are fine after 30 years being frozen in the Swiss Alps. They will have to adapt to a changed world. How will these wretched parents come to terms with their children who are now older than they are?

13,5 × 21 cm, 234 pages

january 2025

L'ÉCHAPPÉE BELLE

by Faith Erin Hicks

Translated by Fanny Soubiran

Betrayed by her best friend, Victoria changes equestrian clubs. She won't risk building new relationships only to be disappointed. But a happy trio leads her back to friendship thanks to a shared passion for the sci-fi series Beyond the Galaxy.

18,5 × 25,5 cm, 224 pages

february 2025

march 2025

13,5 × 21 cm, 96 pages

AMOUREUSE

by Nathalie Kuperman

In love at first glance.
In love when only 12.
In love so hard you cry.
In love with a breaking heart.
In love so that you're jealous of any word he offers another.
In love enough to make you crazy just looking into his bright eyes and at his scar.
In love with his secret.

DE L'AUTRE CÔTÉ DU PONT

by Padma Venkatraman

Translated by Amandine Chambaron-Maillard

To escape their father's violence, Vijji takes Rukku, her disabled sister, through the crowded and dangerous streets of Chennai, India. Faced with adversity, this union of the weak grows strong; two itinerant youth welcome them on their damaged bridge.

13,5 × 21 cm, 252 pages

april 2025

may 2025

13,5 × 21 cm, 248 pages

27 CHAPITRES ET UN PEU PLUS POUR ÊTRE HEUREUX EN TOUTE CIRCONSTANCE

by Fanny Chartres, illustrated by Églantine Ceulemans

Lily, the new student, is polite, generous, always ready to help someone out, her neighbor, an elderly person, or a bird. In short, she's kind. Exasperatingly so. She won't last long at the college. Augustin is determined to help her change, become mean.

june 2025

13,5 × 21 cm, 304 pages

LÀ OÙ RÈGNENT LES BALEINES

by Jolan C. Bertrand, illustrated by Hélène Let

Thirteen-year-old Roanne is sent to spend two months vacation with her uncle Kierzic. This grumpy fellow lives in a dilapidated lighthouse, cut off from the world. Roanne begins to suspect he might be a vampire, before she discovers his secret that's a thousand times more original and fascinating.